Parked on Highway Car Causes Injuries

A white man giving his address as Sarasota is under $500 bond for leaving the scene of an accident where folks were injured, not having a driver's license and parking without lights on the paved highway.

Mrs. Florence Lake, of Pompano did not see the parked car and ran into it injuring herself, her husband and five-year-old child.

The driver of the car "took to the woods" but was retrieved by bloodhounds later.

The location of the accident was near Twenty-Mile-Bend.

Royce W. Owens New City Manager

Mayor January and the City Commission officially appointed Royce W. Owens of Highland Park, Ill., as City Manager to become effective on or before June 1st, Wednesday night.

In his application Mr. Owens describes himself as 43 years of age, 6' 2" and weighing 200 pounds; he is married and has three children.

The new Manager is a graduate of the University of Nebraska in chemistry and is an attorney. He has had seven years experience as Manager of communities of the approximate size of Belle Glade, or a bit larger.

His varied experience appears to qualify him for the position, and the Commission feels that he is the choice of more than two dozen applicants.

Science Teaching In High Schools

Given A "Bang" By TVA Lecturer

Making a classroom in science for the high school student an interesting and an "awakening" event appears to be the motive, and certainly the effect of a procedure promoted and demonstrated by a Travelling Science Teacher from the Tennessee Valley Authority.

TVA is offering to give to any active high school science teacher a week's course at the plant of their suggested methods of teaching, and then lend to the school represented by that teacher several thousand dollars worth of equipment with which to carry on what he has learned in his own local schoolroom.

Mr. D. Gene Randolph gave Rotarians a demonstration Friday in which pyrotechnics were used, manual demonstrations of the effect of inhaling certain gases — actual chemical elements do under certain mixtures and conditions of temperature.

The offer for instruction to the instructor includes his salary and expenses, to a point, as well as allowances for his family.

Because many high schools are not financially able to provide the classroom, nor the equipment and supplies, and because TVA appreciates the need for elementary instruction to high school students it has promulgated and is practicing this plan.

335 To Slaughter 747 To Stockers

Near a third of the offerings were cows, with dairy cows selling same as other cattle.

Glades Youth Baseball Organized 200 Boys Training For Schedule

Twelve teams composed of some 200 Glades boys will embark on the spring season of baseball May 15th and 16th under the direction of the Glades Youth Baseball, Inc., with Ray Wilkinson, President, Claude Paggett and Jay Goodwin as Vice President and Milton Giese as Secretary-Treasurer.

Mothers of participants are organized and are busy gathering funds to provide bleachers and backdrop — and when a group of mothers get together to do something, it's as well as done. They will be around asking for help, don't start humming and hawing, just make up your mind "How Much."

Sponsors of the teams are furnishing uniforms but bleachers are needed. A drink stand will be operated by the group for the benefit of the public and as an income producer for minor expenses.

Organized athletics have proven over the years that there's no better pastime for boys to have.

That Small Print Even With County?

Most contracts have "that small print" which serves as a vehicle for dodging responsibility with some. Normally these are for the mutual protection of parties, and to prevent the unscrupulous from taking advantage. County Attorney Harry Johnston says one of these is conspicuously.

County Commissioners this week told the board he believed the firm—Auto Owners, Inc., which is represented by a lawyer, is violating the terms of its contract with the county.

Johnston told the board a suit is pending which will be a Memphis insurance money as the result of an auto accident which claimed the life of E. B. Sutherland, former fire chief at the airport.

Johnston said the insurance company refuses to accept the liability saying the accident occurred outside Palm Beach County.

Johnston also told the board this week that he had been relieved of any liability in a case in which a diver claimed injury while performing a service for the sheriff's department.

The attorney said a deputy state industrial commissioner has advised that the case be dismissed.

Palm Beach County Ahead State Sales And Gas Tax Collections

Necessitate "Face Facts" Says Green

Comptroller Ray E. Green reports that Palm Beach County has exceeded April of last year in contributions of gas and sales tax, being sixth in total contributions with a gain of $18,000 for a total of $955,000.

Of the 67 counties, 46 shows a PLUS, of the ten largest contributors, Dade leads in total 23 percent of entire state with $3,841,000 AND in comparative loss. Liberty county showed a plus of $100 for a total of $1,308 in comparison with a year ago.

Broward county comes second, Duval third, Pinellas fourth, and Hillsborough fifth, with Orange $145,000 below Palm Beach.

Sales tax collections for the state in April, based on March distribution, were less than April of a year ago but the total was better than expected.

It now appears the annual total from this source as of June 1961 will be slightly less than fiscal 1960. It will be the first time since the 1950's that the state has passed where collections will be below the preceding year.

Realistic analysis of this sad state of affairs for the one month of April should not mislead us into believing Florida's economy has bounced back and everything will be suddenly and continuously upward again.

Spot check with management of a limited number of retail stores this week shows some improvement in April over February and March, ranging from no gain to 10 per cent depending on type of business and location.

This firmer demand is mostly in soft goods lines, probably influenced by seasonal spring buying of clothing and apparel. There is still no noticeable pickup in home building and related businesses.

It is obvious now that Florida has a shorter and later tourist season than in the past. This partly accounts for the overall improvement of April collections over the poor showing in February and March.

It now appears Florida will be slower to bounce back after this recession than after others in recent years. The national economy, now showing spotted signs of strength, must get a lot better and continue improved for a considerable time before the pressure nation-wide overcomes the restraints existing here.

There is some indication in recent weeks that the Cuban and South American problems are having an unfavorable effect on our general situation. Psychologically, some people have a hesitancy about coming to Florida and investing here. We hope this attitude will not become more widespread.

All of these factors here outlined should prompt us to be careful and conservative in predicting what will happen during the next two years. It is difficult to be realistic under present conditions after ten or more years of substantial expansion with gains of from ten to 17 percent each year. But we must face facts and act accordingly, or we can get in trouble.

Improvement In Education Asked By PTA In Final Meeting Monday Night

"Quality education is costly, but poor education costs more," that PTA was told by Herman Close at its final meeting of the close at year's last Monday night.

The speaker told his audience that Florida teachers' salaries had dropped in comparison with the balance of the country from 12th to 25th place since 1957, with the statement that this condition certainly will not attract quality teachers.

After telling his audience that bills are before the Legislature providing for advancing all phases of education, he said, as well as teachers' salaries, he participated in a question and answer period.

Lee D. Rustin offered a motion, seconded by Don Fisher that appropriate letters be written by the Secretary of Education, hasse voicing support of these measures. The public is also asked to write representatives of the Legislature supporting the cause of education.

Mrs. Sam Crisman, treasurer, gave a detailed report on the year's accomplishments.

Mrs. J. A. Ball, Jr., announced that the P. T. A. Scholarship fund will be held at the P. T. A. Convention in Tallahassee from June 6 through 9th, an Institute would be held at

100 Years Ago Tennessee, Arkansas Withdraw From Union

By Lon K. Savage

The Civil War was nearly a month old 100 years ago this week, but aside from the Sumter bombardment there had not been a battle. In the North, a cry for action began to make itself heard - a cry that would become almost deafening in the approaching weeks. In the South preparations went quietly and swiftly to meet this action.

While North and South prepared for battle, some of the most important events of the war were taking place in the border states, where the people were picking their sides. Two states - Arkansas and Tennessee made their choice 100 years ago this week: they chose the Confederacy.

The cry for action came to Lincoln that week in messages such as this one from Wisconsin's governor: "There is a spirit evoked by this rebellion among the liberty loving people of this country that is drawing them to action," he wrote, "and if the government will not permit them to act for it, they will act for themselves."

So Lincoln conferred with his army commander, old ally Winfield Scott, and General Scott worked long and hard on his largely ignored "Anaconda" plan - to blockade the Southern coast, send troops down the Mississippi and choke the South into submission. As Lincoln called for 82,000 more soldiers and seamen to put some such plan into effect.

Davis Given Powers
At Montgomery, the first Confederate Provisional Congress passed acts empowering Davis to use the whole land and naval force of the South for defense. And the congress authorized him to do what he had said he would do two weeks before - issue letters of marque to private vessels which wished to prey on northern sea commerce.

At Richmond, R. E. Lee planned his defenses for anticipated attacks from north, west and east and made out commissions to officers coming in from all directions to offer their services.

At St. Louis, Captain Nathaniel Lyon, the scourge of Missouri secessionists, began swearing German immigrants into service to fight for the Union while on the city's outskirts southern sympathizers went into encampment at the call of pro-secession Governor Claiborne Jackson. In Kentucky, the people voted for a slate of neutralist candidates to a Border Slave States convention - a victory for the Union.

In Maryland, a legislative commission returned from Washington, reporting that Lincoln had promised to safeguard seizure of property as long as the state was not hostile. It dimmed the chances of Maryland's secession.

Then, on that same day, May 6, came the word from Tennessee and Arkansas. At Little Rock, the Arkansas state convention which had refused to secede in defense of slavery voted 66-5 to secede in defense of her sister southern states. Four of the five dissidents switched their votes in an attempt to make it unanimous, and the final tally was 69-1. The lone "nay" was cast by Isaac Murphy, to become the first governor of Arkansas in reconstruction.

While that vote was being taken, the Tennessee legislature passed a bill submitting the question of that state's secession to the people. The measure meant Tennessee was lost to the United States, gained by the Confederacy. For on the next day, the legislature approved an alliance with the Montgomery government, looking to a "speedy admission into the Confederacy."

Some north and west Florida counties, including Duval, Leon, Madison, and Nassau counties, report increases in numbers of cattle during the past five years.

Over 2,000 Hear Bishop Louttit At Episcopal Diocese Convention

The 39th Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of South Florida met in Orlando May 2-4 with more than three hundred lay delegates and two hundred clergy in attendance. At the same time the Annual meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen was held with delegates from the 103 missions and parishes of the Diocese joining together to make this the largest convention in the history of the Diocese.

The Right Rev. Henry I. Louttit, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese presided over the sessions which were held in the Great Hall of the Cathedral of St. Luke in Orlando.

The Reverend Robert N. Huffman, vicar of St. John the Apostle Church, Belle Glade, Jimmy Maynor, delegate and Harold Zumpf, alternate delegate were among those in attendance at the convention.

At a most impressive service in the Municipal Auditorium more than two thousand delegates and visitors heard the Bishop's annual message in which he called attention to the most extraordinary growth of the Diocese during the past ten years of his episcopate. Where as the population in the Diocese that extends from Ocala to Key West had almost doubled, the communicant strength of the Episcopal Church had more than doubled in that time.

"In effect," the Bishop said, "a new Diocese greater in size and strength than the one ten years ago has been added with the union of more than eighty five parishes and missions in the last decade. The Bishop stated that this poses an almost unbelievable strain on the financial and administrative strength of the Diocese and a drastic reorganization is now called for.

The Convention following the Bishop's suggestion passed a resolution calling for the Diocesan Executive Board to submit to the Bishop a committee of laymen to study carefully the findings of the Bishop's annual message in which he called attention to the most extraordinary growth of the Diocese during the past ten years of his episcopate. Where as the population in the Diocese that extends from Ocala to Key West had almost doubled, the

Presbyterian Church Will Honor Mothers

The Everglades Presbyterian Church will observe "Mother's Day" at the morning worship service at 11 a. m. Rev. W. W. Preston has chosen as his sermon the topic "Honor — Thy Mother."

There will also be special music by the Choral Choir under the direction of Mrs. Mather and Ann Preston.

The Oldest mother, the Youngest mother and the mother with the most children will be recognized and presented a gift.

At the evening service Rev. Preston will speak on the subject "Humility."

Churches Of Christ Scientists

The immortal status of the children of God will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in a Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Mortals and Immortals."

Scriptural selections will include the following from Romans (8): "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God."

A correlative passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (p. 519): "Human capacity is slow to discern and to grasp God's crown and the divine power and presence which go with it, demonstrating its spiritual origin. Mortals can never know the infinite, until they throw off the old man and reach the spiritual image and likeness."

"If God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you. O men of little faith!" (Matthew 6:30, rev.)

World War II brought sorrow and extreme poverty to our family. We lost our father! We lost our property! One evening just after liberation, my sister, brother, and I were feeling depressed. Young as we were, we could remember the time when we could have had almost everything we wanted — and always enough to eat.

We were thinking back and expressing our hopelessness when our mother said to us, "If God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?"

This did it! Our young minds could not grasp the implications of this verse, but we did catch our mother's prayerful faith. We lived her faith day by day. Though we faltered every now and then, we pulled through. Her faith gave us strength until we found our own! I am holding on to it — and now passing it on to others!

PRAYER: O Father, forgive us when we allow our disappointments to dim our love and understanding of Thee. Helps us to possess faith that will carry us through the deep and dark valleys of life. Through Christ our Savior and Master. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

We shall not perish through doubt if we live by faith and prayer.

BULLETIN:

Chemical "policeman" in today's Super Shell guards against gum-fouled carburetors — to give your car top performance

One special ingredient among the nine in today's Super Shell gasoline is a gum preventive.

Like a policeman dealing with a mob, it works to keep unstable elements from clotting together. Hence no gum problem. Result: top performance.

IMAGINE an ingredient so effective that only one drop of it is enough to treat a gallon of gasoline.

This tiny drop is all today's Super Shell needs to save your car's performance.

Gum forms when even the best gasoline is held in storage. Unstable elements in the fuel combine chemically with oxygen and with each other. The result is a sticky, gummy substance that can clog your carburetor.

Shell tackles the situation with a special inhibitor that is designed to keep gum from forming.

Where the trouble strikes

Gum usually ends up on sensitive carburetor parts, where it can foul the automatic choke and raise havoc with a car's air-fuel mixture.

Too rich a mixture can waste gallons of gasoline. Too weak a mixture can burn valves. Either way, gum troubles cost money.

In extreme cases, gum can even stick your intake valves. This means a rough and noisy engine—lost power—and perhaps an expensive repair job.

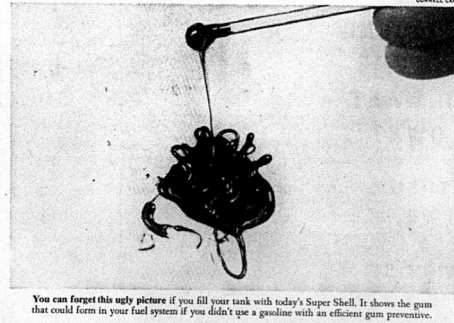

To say that Super Shell's chemical "policeman" goes into your pocketbook is an understatement.

How the "policeman" works

Shell's special anti-gum ingredient is an oxidation inhibitor. It helps keep unstable elements in the gasoline from sticking together—just the way a skilled policeman prevents trouble by keeping a crowd from forming.

As a result your engine is cleaner—for maximum power, maximum mileage. All of which adds up to top performance.

This is just one of the special

You can forget this ugly picture if you fill your tank with today's Super Shell. It shows the gum that could form in your fuel system if you didn't use a gasoline with an efficient gum preventive.

This high-octane ingredient for Shell aviation fuel.

Alkylate—which took the dream of 100-octane gasoline out of the lab and put it into the skies—is now in Super Shell. It controls knocking in hot engines at high speeds far better than anything else yet available.

NOTE: Speaking of controlling knocks at high speeds, remember that car engines frequently turn over faster than the engines of a D-17. Think of this next time you pass another car.

#3 is "cat-cracked" gasoline for power with a purr

This is petroleum that has actually cracked under 900-degree heat and catalytic action. Its heavier molecules have been shattered into lighter ones.

The result is a super-octane ingredient that makes your engine purr with power the moment you put your foot down.

They insist on adding a special anti-knock mix. A mix, so effective, one teaspoon per gallon can boost anti-knock rating by five points.

This mix has the tricky job of regulating combustion so that Super Shell gives each piston a firm, even push—rather than a sharp lurch which would cause a knock.

#6 is Butane for quick starts on cold mornings

Butane is so eager to get going that Shell keeps it under pressure 400 feet below ground to stop it from vaporizing by itself.

#9 is Platformate for extra energy, more mileage

It takes eight million dollars' worth of platinum catalyst for Shell to produce Platformate. But fortunately this precious stuff can be used over and over again.

The platinum re-forming process, which gives Platformate its old name, converts petroleum into super-energy components—such as benzene, xylene and toluene.

These three alone release 11 percent more energy per gallon than 100-octane aviation gasoline. This is energy that shows up as extra mileage.

Test Super Shell for yourself Try Super Shell next time you fill up. You'll soon feel and hear a difference in the way your engine runs. That difference is top performance.

A BULLETIN FROM SHELL RESEARCH — where 1,997 scientists are working to make your car better and better.

Representative Roberts Reports By Wire

It is apparent that the major problem facing legislation in closing days of session is the matter of reconciling public needs and services with estimated income. Appropriations committees of both houses will submit their bill by the early part of next week. At that time we will know the situation of many projects in which we are interested.

I have appeared before subcommittees of appropriations in behalf of educational matters.

Mr. Outland Mgr. Of Ray's Bakery

Mr. Wayne Outland of this week assumed management of Ray's Bakery at 101 W. Avenue A, bringing an extensive background of experience in the line of work, according to Ray Langford, owner of the business.

Mr. Outland operated his own business, a combination Bakery, Restaurant and Drive-in at Compton Plains, New Jersey for a number of years. The family became sold on Florida when they vacationed here, finding it a better climate for Mrs. Outland's health and moved to Miami where they purchased a home about a year ago.

Mr. Outland told The Herald "This place had a strong appeal to me, it's a homey, fast-growing town and I feel there is a real need for our type of business here... with a population over 12,000 it's just a matter of letting the people know we're here and getting them acquainted with our bakery goods and service."

Mrs. Outland will join her husband here in June following graduation from Miami High School of their youngest daughter, Nancy. They also have a married daughter living in New Jersey and a son in Miami. The Outlands are members of the Lakeview Baptist Church in North Miami. Mr. Outland is also a member of the Masonic Lodge, Dr. Creech To Attend Optometrist Convention

Cuban Import Ban Appears Probable

Congressman Paul G. Rogers has stated that he is "encouraged" about prospects for a complete ban on Cuban imports into the United States, after discussions with the White House and the State Department again this week.

Rogers has been calling for a ban on Cuban products being shipped into the country for over a year, but both Administrations stated on all previous discussions that the matter would be given "consideration and study."

After the ill-fated Cuban invasion attempt, Rogers introduced a Resolution in the Congress requesting a complete embargo against Cuba, to follow his many earlier requests that this action be taken at once.

"I am encouraged that our efforts are finally accomplishing some good, and after again urging that action be taken at once to cut off Cuban imports into the United States I am hopeful that some new policy is being formulated and will be announced in the near future."

NSBA is a federation of the 50 state school boards associations, representing some 50,000 local school boards.

Over 5,000 school board members including Milton Carpenter of 316 N. W. Ave. E. Belle Glade, Fla., met in Philadelphia for the annual three-day convention of the National School Boards Association.

Theme of this year's meeting is "School Boards Face National Issues" and speakers covered the range of problems from getting enough good teachers to providing the best possible curriculum and how to pay the increasing school costs.

The convention opened with NSBA President Roy Frantz Pueblo, Colo., telling local board members to avoid dynamic leadership in solving education's problems. Frantz named three major obstacles "which are preventing us from the full exercise of our leadership": poor communications in and among communities, failure to evaluate education on a continuing basis and "our almost universal lack of urgency."

He suggested six steps for board members to take: avoid educational bandwagons, establish priorities in education, be alert to changing community and national needs, try new methods of dealing with old problems, rely on professional judgment of good educators, and constantly re-evaluate the curriculum.

Keynote for the convention was the Hon. Walter H. Judd, U. S. Representative from Minnesota. The second general session featured Dr. Walter A. Anderson, dean of the school of education, New York University, speaking on "Financing NSBA in the sixties."

Jr. And Sr. College Scholarships Available To Glades Hi Graduates

Constructive thinking, civic-minded planning and cooperative effort have made effective the opportunity to 23 Glades high school graduates to receive a total of 45 years of junior and senior college, through loans from a fund which has already received pledges sufficient to carry benefits to 15 students.

Belle Glade PTA appointed a committee with Mrs. James A. Ball as chairman which has functioned to the extent that the plan is to be put before some 14 clubs and organizations, with not a turn down so far.

One authority states that "it must be remembered that $100 enables an individual group or firm to become a supporting member of the effort."

Below is a chart of the minimum deemed wise to consider, and the Committee hopes to be

Years (Program in effect)	Junior College Students	Senior College Students	Cost Per Jr. Col. Student	Cost Per Sr. Col. Student	Total

Uncle Dan From Democrat River

Dear Mister Editor:

I was reading this piece by some Washington column writer saying don't many folks know it but President Kennedy can knock off a little tune on the piano in a push. I hope he don't get pushed.

Sometimes I went along with Harry Truman's politics and sometimes I didn't, but I always figured ole Harry was practically violating the Ten Commandments ever time he set down at the piano. I recollect that news and that President Pettilio from the Musicians Union played a piano-trumpet duet. I don't know what it done for me, but I hope it done for some of the fellers at the country store claimed it set music back 50 years in this country. And I recall Harry played a little piece on the piano for Stalin at one of them summit meetings and as soon as Stalin got home he sent us a bill for $7 million for phone services in Berlin.

I was telling the fellers at the country store Saturday night this news and that President Kennedy and the piano and it was agreed by all that the Congress ought to order that piano knocked out of the White House and put in Speaker Sam Rayburn's barn. And Clem Webster allowed as how a little piano music might help Sam's cows give that Grade A milk you're supposed to get from contented cows.

Bug Hookum interrupted the session at this point to claim there ain't nothing to this contented cow business. Bug says cows is cows and milk is milk and the main thing is to keep the feller milkin' 'em contented. But even Bug admitted the country store would be a heap safer with that White House piano in Sam's barn.

Ed Doolittle said if he had to have music in the White House he'd take his guitar to Washington and for the proper pay, stay for the duration. Ed said he'd need just enough money to sell his cows, dogs, hogs and change his land from the ditch bank to the soil bank. Ed figured his old lady could go away with her mother and if Kennedy wasn't elected for a fourth term, they'd still be gossiping neck-to-neck when he got home.

Some of the boys was wondering if Congress ever got them clocks fixed that was varying a 50th of a second every 24 hours. I wish they'd find out about that. Mister Editor, Clem Webster said if they ain't got 'em fixed, he'd suggest they let the Liberty Bell in the Capitol dome and use it for tolling the time of day. Last time I heard of the Liberty Bell, they had it stored in some place in Philadelphia with a big crack in it. But don't spread that word around, Mister Editor, for the Congress will appropriate another $200,000 to fix it fixed.

Yours truly
Uncle Dan

Florida farmers received more than $50,000,000 for their crops and livestock through sales at State Farmers' Markets last year.

Mother's Day

Mother's Day a festival derived from the custom of mother-worship in ancient Greece. Formal mother-worship, with its roots in Cybele, the "Great Mother of the Gods" were performed on the idea of March throughout Asia Minor.

With the coming of Christianity this developed into worship of "Mother Church," the celebration occurring on mid-Lent Sunday, when children returned home with gifts for parents, especially the mother.

In the U. S. A. "Mother's Day" was given official recognition by Congress, May 8, 1914, the second Sunday in May being the National Day. The white carnation, signifying sweetness, purity and endurance, was adopted as the floral emblem.

Registered Voters List

Loses 610 In County

County Registrar Gorham announced that 123 new registrations were recorded during April and 733 were cancelled, making a net loss of 610 voters.

Mr. Gorham quotes the attorney general as authority that no person shall be permitted to vote in any election precinct or district, other than the one in which he has his permanent place of residence.

Right To Work Law With Teeth Offered

Because "the legislature has prescribed no penalties" Florida's constitutional provision that "the right of persons to work shall not be denied or abridged on account of membership or non-membership in any labor union—" it affords man or woman.

A statement pertinent to a correction of this situation is "the abuses of employers and labor organizations in the past cannot be corrected, but this legislature can correct—present abuses."

The proposed bill, "makes it unlawful for an employer to deny any employee or applicant for employment the right to work because of—" and "makes it unlawful for any person, either by force, violence, agreement or subterfuge to require any employee to join, or not to join."

The proposal "insures the right of any damaged person to have the privilege of using the laws—to sue for damages," and "makes parent labor organizations parties to a suit."

A misdemeanor is provided for violating the act and prescribing penalties. "It is intended to insure those whose operations come under this law, both employers and labor organizations."

Rogers Proposes Loans For Migrant Housing

Congressman Paul G. Rogers in testimony to the House Banking and Currency Committee has called for a new program of Federal insurance for farm housing loans to aid construction of housing for migrant farm labor.

"I am sure you are all aware of the deplorable conditions imposed on our transient agricultural workers," Rogers stated to the Committee.

"This segment of America is forced to earn its living under extreme hardships, yet it is nonetheless a vital part of our national labor force. Domestic agricultural laborers and their families number nearly one million persons. This figure is as large as the population of any one of 15 states, and represents a labor source for approximately 1,000 counties concentrated in 13 states—" these people are largely without even decent shelter."

The Rogers bill would provide Federal insured private loans to farm, farm co-operatives, as well as state and county governments and is similar to the FHA-type loans now available for other kinds of housing through the joint efforts of the Federal government and private business.

Homes And Business

Get $204,500 Permits

Five homes, two of which average $5,500 and three averaging $14,500 were granted permits by the city of Belle Glade in April to bring the total to $54,500.

Winn-Dixie's new store north of town received a permit of $125,000 and James Oliver indicates the spending of $25,000 for a business building on S. W. 6th Street.

Southeast Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Streets each will have a new home built, according to permits.

Children May Labor During Summer Time

"Child Labor laws permit high school students a wide choice of jobs during the summer vacation," Sterling B. Williams, regional director of the Wage-and-Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, said here today. His office administers the Fair Labor Standard Act, including child labor provisions, in five South-eastern states.

"Parents should consider Federal and State regulations as a safeguard to their child's safety and health," Williams pointed out. With the exception of a few jobs which have been declared "hazardous occupations," boys and girls who have passed their 16th birthday may apply for almost any vacation-time job.

Children in the 14 and 15 year old class may seek jobs in office, clerical or sales work. They may accept most jobs in vegetable and fruit-packing sheds, but their work must be performed between 7 a. m. and 5 p. m. and is limited to eight hours any day or 40 hours any week.

Comment from the Capital

WHAT DO WORDS MEAN?

by Vant Neff

IMPERIALISM: According to our dictionary it is the policy or desire of a nation to extend the dominion of a nation. The Communists constantly denounce us for "imperialism." Yet the record proves that this nation, from the Pacific to the Caribbean, Africa and Asia has helped and kept the peace. The Communists are not fools, though. Their misdeeds are part of their calculated plan to distort our thinking. For according to the Marxist-Leninist terminology, "imperialism" is monopoly capitalism which seeks world domination by various means of oppression, exploitation, enslavement. Yet the "tankie imperialists" are the same ones who have given away billions of dollars to help conquered nations, backward countries and former foes.

Do you think it means living together each in his own sphere? Not in the Communist scheme of things. According to Khrushchev, as he told Mr. Stevenson, it means that "if the principles of non-interference were accepted by us, it would improve the international climate. But what went wrong in the Communist part of the world was none of the United States' business. In other words, according to the Communists, we must stay away from anything that we do or attempt to do, or else we are attacked, criticized and interpreted, anywhere."

These are a few examples of how the Communists are using our language to induce you to believe what they want you to believe. When we get tired of Cuba lying to us and we stopped doing business with them, we were called "aggressors" by the Communists. Whenever and wherever in the world we read a Communist grab we are called "aggressors."

ILLEGAL: You think that means unlawful. And it does.

Right now is a good time to buy sweet corn while Florida's crop is at its height. There is no simpler dish to fix than steaming corn-on-the-cob with butter and salt and no dish that has greater appeal to young and old alike.

Sweet - Tasty - Satisfying

Sweet corn is a good buy for Florida housewives! Sweet corn has no superior quality Federal Inspectors tell us, and particularly during the spring harvest.

We will have a good supply into June. Sweet corn brings 7 to $9 millions into this area annually from all states, and all provinces of Canada, as well as from Pan-American islands and countries.

While sweet corn is one of the oldest crops in the state, Hernando de Soto found the Indians cultivating corn in 1540. Indian sweet corn is actually one of the oldest in the world. The Indians learned to cultivate sweet corn but an Indian would scarcely recognize it today. The sweet corn of today has been developed through trial and error over centuries and centuries. Corn was grown as a crop in North America as far back as 2000 B.C.

Florida's winter sweet corn brings about 13 million dollars to the state's economy just because sweet corn is so good people want it all the time, not just when it is in season in their local Florida. Floridians are doubly lucky for we have state-grown sweet corn all year - south of the winter and central and north in the warm months. Now is the time to take advantage of our spring harvest of the winter crop with ever popular corn-on-the-cob.

There are four basic ways of cooking corn-the-cob. One way is to drop cleaned ears into copious boiling water for ten minutes. Another uses steam.

Sprinkle the hot ears in our cream. Brush a tangy barbecue sauce over the cooked corn or even spread the sauce on the corn before roasting in the shucks or wrapping in foil.

Holsum Wins Trophy For Soft-Twist Bread

Holsum Bakers announced this week that their Soft-Twist bread has been awarded the W. E. Long Trophy for highest quality among the brands of bread tested in the Long Trophy Competition.

The W. E. Long Co. Trophy symbolizes high standards of baking. The various brands of bread entered in the competition are judged on eleven factors of quality by the W. E. Long Co. Independent Bakers' Cooperative, Chicago, whose laboratory is equipped for such specialized service.

R. E. Chivers, General Manager of the Holsum plant, said, "The credit for this achievement goes to the men and women of our plant - with their loyalty and expertise in the baking field, they have brought honor to our organization in the field we try most to endeavor - quality."

The Long Co. Trophy is not new to the Holsum plant. In several years running now, this coveted trophy in the baking industry has been won by the Holsum Bakers.
